It was good you could join us at our official Inauguration of our new Head Office. This turned out a great success with 250+ guests and colleagues present.

I was delighted that we had this opportunity to thank you and the POE Team for delivering a quality office environment to Handelsbanken. The design flare brought by Helen to the project is worthy of special note. In addition you met all of our requirements within the agreed time frame and costs.

This was accomplished in an atmosphere of thorough professionalism which does your Team credit.

Jeremy Cox dealt patiently with issues arising always happy to assist us to overcome obstacles along the way in a spirit of "can do".

I very much appreciated your personal involvement and interest throughout the project.

As evidenced in Anders' address, at the Inauguration, we are very happy with the work you have done for us and would be happy to share this experience with any of your contacts who may be thinking of instructing POE.

Kind Regards

Derek Burgess
Area Manager
